

Native Plants at Noon on the Road

Mingo National Wildlife Refuge

October 2022

Native Garden links:	Deep Roots: https://deeprroots.org/plant-a-garden/
Missouri Department of Conservation sites/links	MDC Conservation Areas: https://mdc.mo.gov/conservation-areas-search  Missouri Conservationist Magazine: https://extra.mdc.mo.gov/marketing/conmag.php
Native Plants highlighted	Bald Cypress (Taxodium distichum) Swamp Bidens (Bidens Tripartita) Water fern (Azolla mexicana) Red buckeye (Aesculus pavia) Spider lily (Hymenocallis caroliniana) Marsh mallow (Hibiscus lasiocarpas & laevis) Willow oak (Quercus phellos) Duckweed (Lemna minor) Corkwood (Leitneria floridana) River cane (Arundinaria gigantea) Black willow (Salix nigra) Water locus (Gladitsia aquatic) Swamp cottonwood (Populus heterophylla) Swamp privet (Forestiera acuminata) Water tupelo (Nyssa aquatic)
Take a Trip!	Mingo National Wildlife Refuge State of Missouri Parks-Mingo (fishing, lodging and hiking info) Missouri Department of Conservation-Mingo Duck Creek Conservation Area Mapquest (KC to Mingo)
Recommended Reading	Mingo: Southeast Missouri's Ancient Swamp and the Countryside Surrounding It